

Engraved Memories • Parshat Bechukotai

... e s with a “if...the ...” siti . If y kee My la´s, G d says, the e´ill be ec mic s e ity a d hysical sec ity. I i t d ci g the “if” side f the e ati , the e i gve sec tai sth ee ´ays f c mm icati g that ´e m st f ll ´ G d’s la´s: (1) “If y ´alk i my stat tes,” (2) “a d kee my c mma dme ts,” (3) “a d d them” (Lev. 26:3). This is seemi gly ed da t. If the e a e e^xt a e s details i the T ah, ´hy the e etiti ? Rashi, ti g a mid ash, s ggests that the st a t f the ve se, “If y ´alk i my stat tes,” adv cates f the lab i sst dy f T ah.

The ´ ds i Heb e´ f the st h ase, “If y ´alk i my stat tes,” a e “... -” The ´ d, is c mm ly de st d as la´s that t a sce d ati a l e^x la ati . The st L bavitche Rebbe, Rabbi Sh e Zalma f Liady, s ggests that, ca als be de st d as elated t the ´ d, t e g ave. The e is a f dame tal dif e e ce bet´ee ´ iti g a chme ta d e g avi g st e. Whe i sc ibi g a chme t, the i k eve bec mes a t f the a chme t; they emai t´ disti ct e tities. E g avi g, h ´eve , is embedded ´ithi the st e. It emai s e e tity. We eed t lea T ah t the i t that it bec mes i g ai edi bei g.

I a semi ala ticle ab t the im ta ce f mem yi abbi ic lite at e, Shl m Naeh, fess Talm d at Heb e´ U ive sity, c te ds that the Talm dic sages c ce t alized the lea i ga d mem izi g f T ah c te t as a hysi l gical cess, ´he eby the c ce ts a e s t sed ´ithi the b dy f the sage. Th gh evie´i g, eciti g, a d mem izi g, the T ah became a emb died a t f the lea e . This is me e meta h . Rava c iti es the masses f sta di g f a, , , b t t a T ah sch la (22b), beca se the sch la als has the ´ ds f T ah e gaved i t his b dy.

Ma y m de esea che s s ggest that mem y is “e gaved,” as it ´e e, i the b ai th gh e al et´ ks. Acc di gt the the y fl g-te m te tiati , ´he t´ e sa e activated at the same time, the c ecti bet´ee them st e gthe s. The m e times a idea is evie´ed, a st ge e al c ecti is c eated, f mi g m e elab ate a d d able mem ies that ca be et ievd m e ickly. F ll ´i g this me tal m del, etai i g T ah i f mati ca be de st d as a lite al hysi l gical ma ifestati f T ah ideas bei g e gaved i t mi ds.

This c ce tis t j sti tellect al, limited t the mi da d ideas, b t is als esse tial f cha acte a d vi t e. As Rabbi D . N ma Lamm ´e f lly f m lates i his 965, , “The Tablets Withi ,” the la´s a d val es f the T ah eed t bec me a i teg ated a t f the h ma bei g. They eed t be “ ga ically b d ´ith y ´ s la d hea ta d mi d, i teg ated i t y e s ality.” N matte ´hat challe ges a d cha ges ´e e c te i life, elati shi a d

