

Community Health Action of Staten Island (CHASI) achieves dramatic improvements in the health of New Yorkers by bridging the gaps between people and the compassionate health care they deserve from a client-focused, trauma-informed perspective. CHASI serves the most vulnerable

- x Innovate Solutions Develop and implement systems for timely and impactful client engagement, from emergency room responses to program quality assurance.
- x Champion Advocacy Represent CHASI at conferences, task forces, and coalitions, and prepare reports for key stakeholders.

Qualifications:

- x Educational Requirement Master's Degree in LMHC, LMSW, LCSW, or equivalent with NYS licensure.
- x Experience At least 5 years working with co-occurring substance use disorders and 2 years in program management and staff supervision.
- x Skills: Strong leadership, excellent communication, and proficiency in Microsoft Excel and data reporting systems.
- x Openness to multiple pathways to recovery, including medication assisted treatment and harm reduction.
- x Commitment to client-centered and trauma-informed service delivery and supervisory practices.
- x Demonstrated ability and/or commitment to working effectively with clients from diverse backgrounds with sensitivity to ethnic, cultural, and sexual minorities.

If you're ready to lead a team dedicated to recovery and transformation, apply today!

How to Apply:

Email your resume to HRTeam@chasiny.org with "Director of Client Services" in the subject line.

Join us at CHASI and be part of a dedicated team making a real impact in our community. We can't wait to hear from you!

To learn more about CHASI, visit https:// www.chasiny.org