

S. Daniel Abraham Israel Program

For the benefit of those students who wish to spend a year of study in Israel with a concentration in Jewish studies, Yeshiva University, with the approval of the New York State Education Department and the government of Israel, has established the S. Daniel Abraham Israel Program. Under this program, students may take courses for credit at the university at any one of more than 40 Israeli institutions. A current list of such institutions and the application form for the program is available upon request from the Office of Admissions and online at <http://yu.edu/israel-program/>. Students must be accepted by Yeshiva University as well as a participating Israeli institution in order to be enrolled in the Israel Program.

The Israel Program enables students to:

Incorporate study at Israeli yeshivot, women’s seminaries, or universities into their college years, enhancing their Yeshiva University experience

Immerse themselves in intense, concentrated studm n

Increase fluency in oral and written Hebrew

Experience Israel firsthand: the land, people, history, and culture

Recognized under New York State law as a Yeshiva University extension center, the program is operated at the Yeshiva University Israel Campus in Jerusalem and supervised by full-time Yeshiva University staff. All courses and credits earned while in the program appear as Yeshiva University credits on the student’s permanent record and on transcripts made from this record. Credits earned from the Israel Program are not included in fulfillment of the residence requirement at the Yesb t tÄ / soM me summer session in Jerusalem. During the admissions process may be addressed by our Israel staff as well, culminating with on-site Israel registration for the next semester’s classes at Yeshiva. In addition, the program sponsors lectures and activities where students can gather under the auspices of Yeshiva
