FINANCIAL AID

What Is Expected of Parents and Students?

College students' single most important source of financial help is their parents. Some families of very modest means can give only minimal support, but the overwhelming majority of parents can and do provide substantial financial help

Yeshiva University is eager to help parents meet educational expenses, but expects each family to pay as much as it can reasonably afford and as much as other families in similar circumstances. The university expects a family to draw on both current income and accumulated assets to meet education costs.

Filling the gap between the cost of education and a family's financial resources can include a variety of elements. The university will do its best to fill in as much as possible with financial aid. Where there remains a gap, students would do well to explore these additional areas:

- the student's personal savings, including trusts, bonds, and summer work
- part-time work during the school year
- student loans
- loans obtained by parents through family, friends, or commercial organizations
- scholarship grants—from federal and state scholarship programs and programs sponsored by community, fraternal, and industrial organizations

Financial Assistance Programs

Students seeking financial assistance from Yeshiva University who are U.S. citizens or eligible non-citizens are required to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

All students should file the FAFSA as early as possible after October 1 of the year prior to when they will attend Yeshiva University. The FAFSA should be filed online at studentaid.gov. The YU Federal School Code for the FAFSA is 002903. International students should fill out the International Student Financial Aid Application, which can be found online at _____, at the Office of Student Aid, or at the Office of Admissions.

The Yeshiva University Financial Assistance Program includes many sources of aid including scholarships, grants, loans, and work study. The following are brief descriptions of the programs.

TAP provides grants of up to $5,165 per year for students who are legal residents of New York State. Awards are determined by the amount of parents' net taxable New York State income (gross income less all exemptions and deductions). This grant can only be used for tuition and cannot be used for fees or living expenses.

These loans are available to needy students. A maximum of $4,000 per year ($8,000 for international students) may be borrowed. Repayment begins nine months after the borrower ceases to be a half-time student and is made in

Federal Work Study Program

The Federal Work Study Program provides students who demonstrate financial need with possible employment to help meet supplementary educational expenses. The Office of Human Resources places students in jobs that, wherever possible, are in keeping with their career goals and previous work experience. In many cases, students without prior work experience receive on-the-job training.

The Office of Student Aid's Work Study Program provides employment of up to 15 hours per week while classes are in session at the Wilf Campus, Beren Campus, and Brookdale Center.

The summer Work Study Program provides employment of up to 35 hours per week either off campus near the student's home or at a YU campus.

Only students who will attend in the fall semester may participate in the previous summer Work Study Program.
