

YC: History courses fall 2021

Emergence of Europe

His 1101 (required course for History major)

M/W 4:30 -5:45

Professor Wil Stenhouse

This course examines the history of Europe from the rise of ancient Greece (around 600 BCE) to the aftermath of the Renaissance and Reformation (around 1650 CE). It aims to introduce the study of history alongside the pre-modern history of Europe: as well as considering the central political, cultural, and religious developments of the era, we look in detail at some primary sources created at the time, to try to understand how historians can use them to learn about the past. These sources include images, letters, and satirical tracts, as well as more familiar historical and biographical accounts. Assessment is by participation, short responses, papers, and exams.

Roman Emperors in Theory and Practice

HIS 2831H (satisfies CUOT Core requirement)

M/W 3:00 -4:15

Professor Will Stenhouse

This course explores various ways of understanding the figure of the Roman emperor. We focus on the first emperor Augustus and one of his successors, Nero, and then think a little about the ways that they have been remembered. In class we discuss a range of textual and visual sources for the emperor, including poems, historical accounts, ruins, and coins, and place the emergence of the religious, and cultural traditions . Assessment is by participation, informal responses and discussions, short papers, and two tests.

History of the Law

HIS 2601 (satisfies CUOT Core requirement)

T/Th 4:30-5:45

Professor Douglas Burgess

This course examines the development of western law from an historical perspective. Through a combination of lecture and discussion of assigned readings, students will be introduced to the foundational documents of the law, their historical context, and their relevance to modern jurisprudence. S tudents will be expected to recognize and comprehend major themes of private and public law, the relationship of subject and sovereign, rights of the individual, law and statecraft, and the philosophy of law.

American Presidents

HIS 2220 (satisfies CUOT Core requirement)

T/Th 6:45-8:00

Professor Douglas Burgess

This introductory course examines the development and evolution of the American Presidency.

Beginning as an experiment in enlightened government, the office of the executive gradually expanded to meet new and greater challenges and was irrevocably shaped by the men who occupied it.

Media Revolutions: From Scroll to Screen

HIS 2909 (satisfies CUOT Core requirement)

T/Th 3:00-4:15

Professor Jeffrey

The Holocaust

HIS 2141

T/Th 3:00-4:15

Professor Josh Zimmerman

This course examines the fate of European Jewry between 1933 and 1945. We shall cover the rise and fall of the democratic Weimar Republic in the 1920s, the Nazi seizure of power, anti-Jewish policy and legislation in Nazi Germany, ghettoization in Nazi Europe, and the conception and implementation of the Final Solution during the Second World War. Additional topics will include the problem of the Judenrat, Jewish resistance, life in the ghettos and camps, the Jewish Question and public opinion in Nazi-occupied Europe, and the reactions of the Allies, the Church, and world Jewry to the Holocaust.
