

ABOUT THIS CATALOG

This catalog supersedes all previous catalogs and academic information and policies and is binding on all students. It was prepared on the basis of the best information available at the time of publication. However, students continue a course of study in effect at the time they enrolled provided that no more than the normal period is taken to complete the program.

ACCREDITATION

Yeshiva University is accredited by the Commission on Higher Education Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and by the appropriate professional agencies: the Liaison Committee on Medical Education of the American Medical Association, the Association of the American Medical Colleges, the American Psychological Association, the American Bar Association, the Commission on Accreditation of the Council on Social Work Education, the Association of Institutions of Higher Learning for Jewish Education and the National Board of License for Hebrew Teachers.

SAFETY & SECURITY

Yeshiva University takes its responsibility for on-campus security very seriously and makes every effort to offer its students, faculty and staff a safe and comfortable environment by working closely with the local community and with law enforcement agencies. Even though there is a very low rate of crime on our campuses, federal law requires us to make crime statistics available. You can find them at <http://ope.ed.gov/security>. Search for Yeshiva University, then click on a particular campus. At the bottom of each page, you can select various categories of crime statistics to view. You can also contact YU Security at 212.960.5221 for more information.

While emergency events on campus are unlikely, it is vital to be prepared to react accordingly during emergencies to ensure your safety. To get prepared and learn about emergency response at Yeshiva University, visit our Emergency Readiness website: www.yu.edu/safety-security/emergency.

as president and international director of Hillel: The Foundation for Jewish Campus Life, where he greatly expanded programs, activities and branches in the nation and around the world.

Under President Joel's leadership, the University has created a number of centers and institutes to consolidate the vast intellectual resources of the University and to create cross-disciplinary dialogues both within and without the institution.

The Center for the Jewish Future runs programs that infuse the student body with a spirit of leadership and responsibility to the people of Israel and builds and supports communities and their rabbinic and lay leaders in order to shape, enrich and inspire the contemporary Jewish community across North America and abroad. The Rabbi Arthur Schneier Center for International Affairs invites experts in diverse global issues to open an educational forum for the exchange of ideas on crucial political and social topics. The Center for Jewish Law and Contemporary Civilization holds public programs that shed light on what the Jewish legal tradition can contribute to our collective enterprise of creating an ethical civil society. The Center for Israel Studies at Yeshiva University serves as a focal point for the study of Israel at YU. The Institute for University-School Partnership works with Jewish day schools and the community to transform Jewish education. The Zahava and Moshael Straus Center for Torah and Western Thought helps develop Jewish thinkers and wisdom-seeking Jews by deepening
