

---

Students are expected to attend seder and shiur on a consistent basis. Students are subject to disciplinary and academic penalties for excessive absences or poor performance, including academic probation and pre-probation restrictions.

A student may only attend the shiur to which he was assigned. First year students who would like to switch shiurim must receive permission from either Rabbi Rapp or Rabbi Kalinsky, associate dean and assistant deans of the program. Students who attend a shiur other than the one they were assigned are subject to consequences.